WOODWIND TRIO

INGREDIENTS

STARTERS AND MAIN COURSES - can be combined with another short session in a day.

TRIO TOYS - a toy chest, on loan from 'ARTEMIS', filled with late Victorian/Edwardian toys with illustrations by Stephen Waterhouse. Each toy is rescued from a dusty old toy shop and has its own music performed by the trio. The children are encouraged to join in with actions. This captivating experience is designed for one class at a time and lasts about 45 minutes.

TRIO TRAVELS - The Trio take on animal characters and go on a journey together, on various modes of transport, from the jungle to the seaside. Colourful pictures, by Stephen Waterhouse, illustrate the story. The class are encouraged to use their imagination to influence the story line. The Trio play suitable music and there are opportunities for the children to share percussion instruments brought in by the Trio. 'Trio Travels' stimulates story-writing, illustration and creative music.

CHANGING SOUNDS - The Trio bring in a huge selection of instruments and household gadgets, from the double-bass to a hosepipe, to demonstrate the science of sound. In this highly interactive classroom session, lasting about an hour, the children discover how to make their own musical instrument.

TUDOR DANCE SESSIONS - Learn 3 dances and sing a round accompanied by Tudor instruments.

DESSERTS (HISTORY TOPICS) - A series of one/two-day events comprising plays exploring history through songs, movement and creative music culminating in a performance for the school. Additional artefacts can be made available from 'ARTEMIS'.

TUDOR TIMES - A play about Henry VIII and/or Elizabeth I with dancing, singing and, where appropriate, musical instruments performed by the children themselves. The Trio play recorders, crumhorn and cornamuse throughout.

ANCIENT EGYPT - Two plays are available: Isis & Osiris and Tutankhamun.

ANCIENT GREECE - Persephone

ANGLO-SAXONS - Beowulf

VICTORIAN MILL - A typical child's day in the mill and at school. Includes artefacts provided by 'ARTEMIS.'

WORLD WAR 2 - A series of tableaux including a group performance of 'In The Mood.'

VIKINGS - scenes from Viking life including playing and singing the 'Viking blues!'

MEDIAEVAL DAY - original instruments, singing and dancing from long ago.
